

Bio – Roland Cordero

Roland Cordero, Foothill Transit's Director of Maintenance and Vehicle Technology, spent the last ten years at Foothill Transit holding several positions from Operations Analyst, Director of Finance, and Director of Facilities. Roland also spent 8 years in the auto industry as an internal auditor and Parts Director. Roland participated in the FTA sponsored EMS training program provided by Virginia Tech. He was part of the Foothill Transit team that was instrumental in implementing an ISO14001 Certified EMS system at the agency's Arcadia Operations and Maintenance facility. Roland holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Management from California State University - Los Angeles, an MBA from University of Phoenix and and EMS certificate from Virginia Tech.